SECTION 1.—APPLICATION OF TARIFF.

The rules and regulations shown in this tariff apply only between stations on:

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company
(Lines Pittsburgh, Pa., Oil City, Pa., Erie, Pa. and West)

SECTION 2.—DIVERSION OF TICKETS.

- (a) A ticket or coupon reading via short line, or via short line only, or without having route specified, is good only via the direct or usual route or routes, except such tickets or coupons reading between points shown in Section 3 will be valid via the routes indicated in connection therewith.
- (b) A ticket or coupon good via a longer or higher fare route is also good via the shorter or lower fare route or routes.
- (c) If the fare via one route is lower than via another route, a ticket sold at the lower fare may be accepted via the higher fare route on payment of the difference in fares. A ticket thus diverted must be endorsed by the Conductor to show the extra fare collected.

SECTION 3.—OPTIONAL ROUTES.

Except as otherwise specified herein, a ticket or coupon without routing shown thereon, and valid between any two stations indicated below, will be honored, at option of passenger, as follows:
