

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD SYSTEM

INFORMATION

for Employes and the Public

Being a series of leaflets issued in 1913 by the Pennsylvania Railroad
System in the interest of improved service, increased efficiency, and a better understanding by employes and the public of railroad problems.

Contents

	Leaflet
Why Freight Rates Should Be Increased <small>MR. SAMUEL REA TO "PUBLIC LEDGER"</small>	1
Why Freight Rates Should Be Increased on the Pennsylvania Railroad . . . <small>ADDRESS BY MR. GEO. D. DIXON</small>	2
The Proposed Advance in Eastern Freight Rates <small>ADDRESS BY MR. SAMUEL REA</small>	3
Promotions and Appointments, <small>JUNE JULY</small>	4
The Struggle to Make This Railroad Safe	5
How Can the Colleges and the Industries Co-operate? <small>ADDRESS BY MR. IVY L. LEE</small>	6
The Pennsylvania Railroad Farmers' Instruction Train	7
Changes in Personnel, <small>AUGUST</small>	8
How the Newark Bay Bridge Was Destroyed and Rebuilt	9
The Railroad Roll of Honor, <small>JULY</small>	10
An English Estimate of the Pennsylvania Railroad	11
How the Passengers Were Rescued from Train No. 600	12

Contents—Concluded

	Leaflet
The Reins to Those Who Can Drive . . .	13
<small>ARTICLE BY MR. HOWARD ELLIOTT</small>
The Railroad Roll of Honor, AUGUST . . .	14
The Railroad Roll of Honor, SEPTEMBER . . .	15
Campaigning for "Safety First"	16
The Railroad Roll of Honor, OCTOBER . . .	17
The Abatement of Locomotive Smoke . . .	18
<small>PAPER BY MR. D. F. CRAWFORD</small>
A Comprehensive Treatment of the Railroad Problem	19
<small>BOOK REVIEW BY MR. W. M. ACWORTH</small>
Changes in Personnel, OCTOBER NOVEMBER	20
Things to Think About	21
The Railroad Roll of Honor, NOVEMBER . . .	22
The Tragedy—and the Cost—of Railroad Trespassing	23
<small>PAPER BY MR. R. H. NEWBERN</small>
A Case Where Courtesy Made a Friend . . .	24
How a Locomotive Engineer "Keeps a Lookout"	25
Promotions and Appointments, DECEMBER . . .	26
The Railroad Roll of Honor, DECEMBER . . .	27

