

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD SYSTEM

INFORMATION

for Employes and the Public

Being a series of leaflets issued in 1914 by the Pennsylvania Railroad System in the interest of improved service, increased efficiency, and a better understanding by employes and the public of railroad problems.

Contents

	Leaflet
The Pennsylvania's System for Preventing Personal Injuries . . . . .	1
<small>ADDRESS BY MR. R. H. NEWBERN</small>
Promotions and Appointments, JANUARY . . .	2
How This Railroad Helps the Farmer . . .	3
<small>ADDRESS BY MR. GEORGE D. OGDEN</small>
Veterans in the Public Service — in both Peace and War . . . . .	4
<small>ARTICLE BY MR. WILLIAM BENDER WILSON</small>
The Railroad Roll of Honor, JANUARY . . .	5
What the Pennsylvania Railroad Does for Safety — the Result in 1913 . . .	6
“An Achievement of the Highest Public Service” . . . . .	7
<small>PRESS COMMENTS ON THE 1913 SAFETY RECORD</small>
New Officers of the Pennsylvania Lines . . .	8
<small>CHANGES FOLLOWING RESIGNATION OF MR. JOSEPH WOOD</small>
Promotions and Appointments, FEBRUARY . . .	9
The Railroad Roll of Honor, FEBRUARY . . .	10
The Paramount Cause of Deaths on Amer- ican Railroads . . . . .	11
<small>THE RESULTS OF TRESPASSING</small>
“What Can We See Ahead in Railroading?”	12
<small>ADDRESS BY MR. IVY L. LEE</small>
Promotions and Appointments, FEBRUARY MARCH . . .	13

Contents—Continued

	Leaflet
How this Railroad Safeguards Its Employees and the Public . . . . .	14
Digging the Railroad Out of the Snow . . . . .	15
<small>THE BLIZZARD OF MARCH, 1914</small>
Promotions and Appointments, <small>FEBRUARY MARCH</small> . . . . .	16
The Railroad Roll of Honor, <small>MARCH</small> . . . . .	17
Starve the Railroads and We Starve Our- selves . . . . .	18
<small>ARTICLE BY MR. FRANK A. MUNSEY</small>
The Railroad Roll of Honor, <small>APRIL</small> . . . . .	19
Promotions and Appointments, <small>MARCH APRIL</small> . . . . .	20
He Risked His Life to Save Another . . . . .	21
The Railroad Roll of Honor, <small>MAY</small> . . . . .	22
Recent News of Government Ownership of Railways . . . . .	23
What Italians Are Doing on the Pennsylv- ania Railroad . . . . .	24
The Pennsylvania Railroad System Owns Nearly 3000 Steel Cars . . . . .	25
The Railroad Roll of Honor, <small>JUNE</small> . . . . .	26

Contents—Continued

	Leaflet
Spending $300,000 to Keep Milk Fresh and Clean . . . . .	27
Providing Increased Facilities for Handling Export Grain . . . . .	28
Improving Pennsylvania Freight Service by Providing All-Steel Box Cars .	29
Promotions and Appointments, <sup>MAY</sup> <sub>JULY</sub> . . . .	30
87,000,000 Passengers on 680,000 Trains— All Safe . . . . .	31
The Railroad Roll of Honor, <sup>JULY</sup> . . . .	32
The Railroad Roll of Honor, <sup>AUGUST</sup> . . . .	33
Some Incidents in this Railroad's Daily Task of Serving the Public . . . .	34
Thomson Scholarships Awarded . . . .	35
The Railroad Roll of Honor, <sup>SEPTEMBER</sup> . . . .	36
Promotions and Appointments, <sup>AUGUST</sup> <sub>OCTOBER</sub> . . . .	37
Getting At—and Removing—the Causes of Railroad Accidents . . . . .	38
<small>ADDRESS BY MR. R. H. NEWBERN</small>
Cleaning Up the Railroad's Front Yard .	39
<small>THE ANNUAL TRACK INSPECTION—1914</small>

Contents—Concluded

	Leaflet
Moving a 720-Foot Bridge Into Its Permanent Abode . . . . .	40
Another Step Toward All-Steel Railroad Cars . . . . .	41
The Railroad Roll of Honor, OCTOBER . . . . .	42
An Appeal to the People for Help . . . . .	43
<small>PLEA BY MR. SAMUEL REA FOR REPEAL OF THE EXTRA CREW LAW</small>
The Five Per Cent. Advance Rate Case and "Scientific" Rate-Making . . . . .	44
<small>ADDRESS BY MR. GEORGE D. DIXON</small>
Men from 38 Foreign Countries Work for This Railroad . . . . .	45
An Engineman Who Practices What He Preaches . . . . .	46
The Railroad Roll of Honor, NOVEMBER . . . . .	47
The Necessity for a Constructive Policy in the Practice of Public Regulation . . . . .	48
<small>ADDRESS BY MR. SAMUEL REA</small>
How Railroad Employes Saved a Shipwrecked Freight Train . . . . .	49
Promotions and Appointments, <small>SEPTEMBER DECEMBER</small> . . . . .	50
This Railroad System's Exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition . . . . .	51
The Railroad Roll of Honor, DECEMBER . . . . .	52

