PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD

FORM 1

...from all points of the compass

to every corner of the world...

Through the great ports in New York Harbor, those in the Delaware River and Chesapeake Bay and those of Hampton Roads flows the major share of America's world commerce . . . imports and exports. Here, the transshipment facilities of the Pennsylvania Railroad—the docks and rail lines, the cranes and unloaders, the tugs and barges, the storage and handling equipment—are employed to keep the tide of international trade moving steadily. This flow of mass materials, of foodstuffs, manufactures and commodities, between cars and ships, never stops.

The Pennsylvania gets it done through a policy of progressive railroading which anticipates the need for, and is ready with, the right equipment and facilities. PRR's great new 9-million-dollar ore pier at Philadelphia—for instance—is the vital link between new foreign sources of iron ore and the expanding steel industry. This example of enterprise and accomplishment can be multiplied many times. The goal is always a new service or a better service for industry . . . greater efficiency and customer-satisfaction . . . a strong and dependable railroad serving the interests of the entire nation.

SUGGESTIONS HELPFUL IN THE USE OF THIS FOLDER

First, find your station in alphabetical Index to Stations on pages 4 and 5. The numbers shown opposite each station indicate tables showing train schedules to and from each station. Condensed train schedules are shown in tables A to C and 1 to 7, incl.; all other tables of schedules are listed numerically.

Equipment carried on through trains, such as sleeping cars, coaches, parlor cars and dining cars, is listed in connection with each table of through train schedules.

Time from 12:01 midnight to 12:00 noon is shown in LIGHT figures, while time from 12:01 noon to 12:00 midnight is shown in DARK figures.

Where station columns appear in center of certain tables—for example, table 3 on page 14—time figures on righthand side should be read from bottom to top, while figures on lefthand side read from top to bottom.

Note carefully any sign, symbol or letter shown in schedule columns, as it is very important that you read the explanation under Reference Marks on same page.

In many tables you will find ruled lines with one or more stations intervening. Such ruled lines indicate that stations thus set apart are located on lines beyond or branching out from the line covered by the table and show connecting service. Follow your trip with map on pages 28 and 29.

All Schedules shown are based on Standard Time

North Philadelphia Station—in the North Philadelphia section of the city, is approximately 3½ miles north of the central business district. This is the station stop in Philadelphia for through trains between the East and West. Trains between New England, New York, Baltimore, Washington and the South; Philadelphia-New York hourly trains and Delaware River Bridge trains to and from Southern New Jersey stop at this station.

Passengers arriving at North Philadelphia Station from the West are afforded connecting service to Pennsylvania Station (30th Street), and the Suburban Station. Broad St. subway trains stop at adjoining station.

Pennsylvania Station (30th St.)—is the Main Station in Philadelphia, located on Market St. 1 mile west of City Hall. Market Street subway-surface trolley cars stop at entrance. There are two levels of tracks in this station:

Lower Level—used by through trains between New England, New York, Baltimore, Washington and the South; Philadelphia-New York express trains; for outbound Delaware River Bridge trains to New Jersey; and for trains which run between Pennsylvania Station (30th St.) Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Williamsport, Buffalo, Cape Charles, etc.

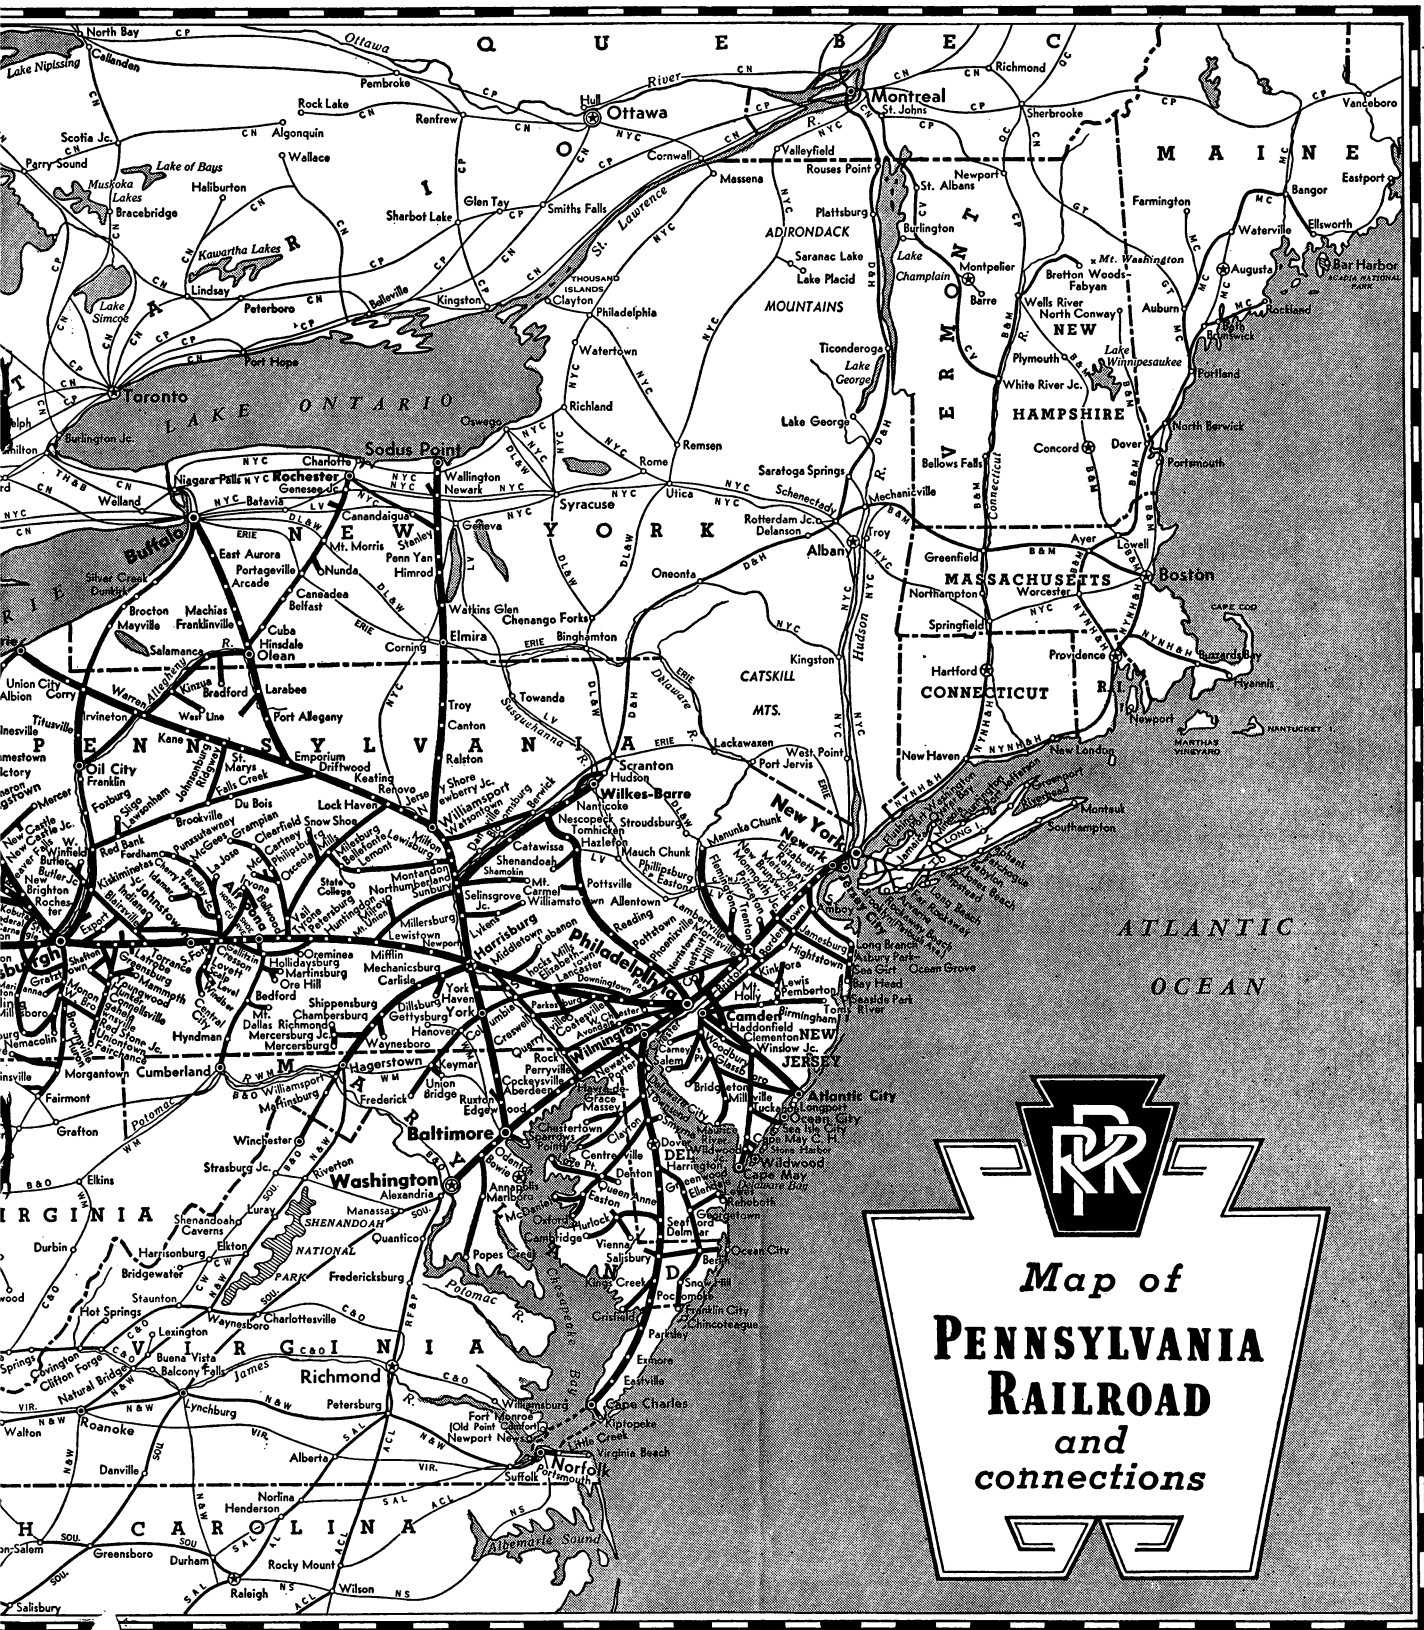

Upper Level—used by all suburban trains operating out of and into the Suburban Station.

Suburban Station—located in the central business district two blocks from City Hall. It is connected with the Broad Street and Market Street Subways by underground passageway. This station is used exclusively by electric commuter trains.

Broadway Terminal Camden—the station on the New Jersey side of the Delaware River for Pennsylvania-Reading Seashore Lines trains starting from Camden, N. J., to Southern New Jersey; also for Pennsylvania Railroad trains to Pemberton, Bordertown and other New Jersey Stations. Philadelphia Transportation Co., subway trains operate directly between the Subway Transfer Station at 8th and Market Sts., Philadelphia and Broadway Terminal Camden.

There is no charge for this service. Advance notice may be given to the Station Master, Ticket Agent or any Passenger Traffic Representative when purchasing ticket or at start of your trip.

MEETING FRIENDS—Because Pennsylvania Railroad trains are sometimes operated in more than one section, it will be helpful to friends who plan to meet you to know the number or designation of the Pullman car or coach in which you have your reservation.

At the larger stations, a convenient central point to meet is the Information Bureau.

RED CAP PORTER SERVICE is available at principal stations at a charge of 25¢ for each bag or parcel. Carriers' liability is limited to not more than $50.00 for each bag or parcel, including its contents unless greater value is declared in writing by passenger. This service is available without extra charge upon presentation of the usual transfer coupon accompanying tickets reading to points 85 miles or greater beyond Chicago where change of stations is necessary.

SPECIAL DELIVERY SERVICE—Before starting a trip passengers may telephone the Railway Express Agency or other authorized transfer company to call and pick up baggage and check through to home, hotel, etc., at destination—or if baggage is delivered at station, baggage checkman will on request check through to the local address, making collection of the delivery charge; or if desired, this charge may be paid to the transfer company on delivery at destination.

This service is convenient, relieves you of handling baggage at stations, and for a reasonable charge, places responsibility for the movement of your baggage to and from stations in the hands of an authorized transfer company.

DOGS and other small household pets are transported in baggage cars subject to tariff regulations. Dogs, cats or other animals (not venomous, odoriferous or otherwise objectionable) when carried in baskets or containers, may be taken by purchasers of Pullman private rooms into the rooms they occupy, subject to established regulations.
