When ticket offices are open for the sale of tickets, please purchase your ticket before boarding the train. Otherwise, an unnecessary burden is imposed upon conductors and collectors, retarding the performance of their other duties.

Again, in times like these, with long lines often at ticket windows in large cities, you'll find it time-saving to buy round-trip tickets.

Your cooperation in both respects will be appreciated. It helps to keep our railroad transportation system operating at high wartime efficiency.
